DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-12 are currently pending in the application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1, 7, 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph as being lack of antecedent basis in the claims.

Claims 1 recites the limitation "The method" in line 5. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 7 recites the limitation "correlated ingress data" and "correlated ingress data indicating flapping". There is insufficient antecedent basis for these limitations in the claim.

Claim 9 recites the limitation "where discovered routing policies are compared with predetermined routing policies". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 10 recites the limitation "discovered damping policies are compared with predetermined damping policies". There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5 The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

6 Claims 1-5, 8-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C 102(e) as being anticipated by Goldsack et al (US 6,831,890 B1).

Regarding claim 1, Goldsack et al disclose a method of discovering policies in an abstracted routing element comprising:

tapping ingress and egress streams at a plurality of connections to the element, filtering ingress and egress streams at the taps, collecting filtered ingress and egress streams from the taps, correlating the collected ingress and egress information, and discovering policies used in the abstracted routing element from the correlated ingress and egress information (see figure 1, col. 2 & 4, line 1-15, 20-26, respectively.).

Regarding claim 2 where the abstracted routing element is an autonomous system (see figure 1).

Regarding claim 3, where the abstracted routing element is a combination of Autonomous Systems and networks (see figure 1).

Regarding claim 4, Goldsack et al further teach where the policies discovered include routing policies (col. 2, lines 10-13).

Regarding claim 5, 8-10, Goldsack et al further teach where routing policies are discovered by comparing prefixes advertised at ingress points with prefixed disseminated at egress points (figure 1 shows the comparing of Timestamps & sequence number of selected packet at ingress and Timestamps & sequence numbers of selected packets, also see col. 5, lines 15-20).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7 The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8 Claim 6, is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Goldsack et al (US 6,831,890 B1).

Art Unit: 2616

Regarding claim 6, as explained in the rejection statement of claim 1 (parent claim), Goldsack et al disclose all claimed limitations recited in claim 1. Although Goldsack et al does not teach policies discovered include damping policies, this limitation is well known in the art. It is well known that BGP route flap damping as described in Request for Comments (RFC 2439) has been proposed as a solution to route flaps.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time of the invention was made to implement damping policies using method teaching by Goldsack et al.

9. Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Goldsack et al (US 6,831,890 B1) in view of Mangipudi et al (US 7,124,188 B2).

Regarding claim 11, Goldsack et al disclose all claimed limitation recited in claim 1 (parent claim). Goldsack et al does not teach access control providing limited access to discovered policies based on predetermined access classes. This limitation is teach by Mangipudi et al. Mangipudi et al teach a method and apparatus for robustly enhanced Class of service at the application layer permits highly flexible privilege based access and enables implementation of complex policies and rules for classification and differentiation of services.

It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time of the invention was made to implement step of access control in Goldsack et al with teaching of Mangipudi et al to provide admission control through network.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claim 12 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art made of record fails to teach or fairly suggests in combination access control providing limited access to the comparison of discovered policies with predetermined policies based on predetermined access classes.
